Answers drawn from published scheme documents · Singapore · English only

This is a shortlist to check, not an approval.

Nothing here is a guaranteed payout. Only the agency that runs each scheme can decide. Every line below shows the document it came from — read it before you apply.

● Possibly eligible

3 schemes

Your answers match the conditions stated in the documents. You still need to apply and be assessed.

GST Voucher — Cash

$450 or $850

Your flat type and income band fall inside the limits the factsheet states. Which of the two amounts applies depends on the annual value of your home.

2 of 3 conditions matched · 1 not checked

- Citizenship
- Income band
- Annual value of home — not checked

WHAT WOULD CHANGE THIS

The annual value on your property tax notice decides which tier applies. Above $21,000 gives the lower amount.

CDC Vouchers

$500 per household

The document states every Singaporean household is eligible, with one claim per household.

1 of 1 condition matched

- Singaporean household

WHAT WOULD CHANGE THIS

Only one person per household can claim. If someone at home already claimed, yours will show as used.

Workfare Income Supplement

Amount not stated for your band

You are above the stated minimum age and inside the income band. The document also requires CPF contributions in the qualifying months, which this shortlist cannot check.

2 of 4 conditions matched · 2 not checked

- Age 30+
- Income ≤ $2,500
- CPF contributions — not checked
