How the scheme works

The grant amount depends on your monthly household income per person as well as the number of properties owned.

Monthly household income per person	Payout
$0 – $1,500 (or AV ≤ $21,000 for households without income)	$600
$1,501 – $3,600	$400
$3,601 – $4,800	$200

 If you own multiple properties, you will receive the lower tier of $200 per month.*

After you submit your application, we may take up to four weeks to process it. You will be informed about the outcome in writing via mail.

Once approved, payouts will be made to the nominated bank account in the following month. This may include payouts from the month the application was submitted. The payouts will be reflected as “HCG” in your bank statement.

FAQs

1. Tell me more about the Functional Assessment Report (FAR).

The FAR assesses a person's need for assistance with the activities of daily living.

To complete it, you will need to contact the clinic first to confirm if they can carry out the FAR before booking your appointment. You are required to bring along a physical copy of the FAR and any other relevant supporting documents (eg medical records).

Approved FAR assessors include:

- Doctors who are under full or conditional registration with the Singapore Medical Council and possess the necessary licence(s). This includes the doctor or the doctor's organisation holding the relevant and valid Healthcare Services Act (HCSA) licence(s).
- Registered nurses who are under full or conditional registration with the Singapore Nursing Board.
- Physiotherapists who are under full, conditional or restricted registration with the Allied Health Professions Council ("AHPC").

- Occupational therapists who are under full, conditional or restricted (restricted scope classification - "Physical dysfunction / Adults and older adults" only) registration with AHPC.

If the person who needs assessment is below the age of 8, he/ she must be assessed by a paediatrician.

2. Tell me more about the assessment using a Client Assessment Form (CAF).

The CAF is an assessment tool used to determine the level of support needs for persons living with Intellectual Disability (ID) or Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD).

This assessment can be used to apply for long-term care schemes administered by AIC for care recipients aged 16 years old and above. They can choose to have their level of support needs for ADL determined via the CAF.

The CAF must be completed by a MSF-approved assessor who is also a registered healthcare practitioner, for the purpose of applying for AIC-administered grants.

Registered healthcare practitioners include:

- Doctors who are under full or conditional registration with the Singapore Medical Council and possess the necessary licence(s). This includes the doctor or the doctor's organisation holding the relevant and valid Healthcare Services Act (HCSA) licence(s).
- Registered nurses who are under full or conditional registration with the Singapore Nursing Board.
- Physiotherapists who are under full, conditional or restricted registration with the Allied Health Professions Council ("AHPC").
- Occupational therapists who are under full, conditional or restricted (restricted scope classification - "Physical dysfunction / Adults and older adults" only) registration with AHPC.

If your loved one is currently attending a Special Education School or disability care services such as Day Activity Centres, you can check if the school or service provider can do the CAF assessment. If they can, please check that the CAF assessor they provide is MSF-approved and a registered healthcare practitioner.

If the school or service provider does not provide CAF assessment or if the care recipient with ID or ASD do not receive disability services from the community, you may approach these Therapy Hubs for CAF assessment.

Please note that if the care recipient (aged 21 and above) lacks mental capacity to provide consent for the scheme application, Section B of the Functional Assessment Report* needs to be submitted with the CAF. This form must be endorsed only by a registered medical doctor.

Note that fees may apply for this assessment.*

3. What do I need to know if I am applying on behalf of my loved one who lacks mental capacity?

You can apply on behalf of your loved one as long as:

- You are the appointed Donee (appointed under the Lasting Power of Attorney) or Deputy (appointed under the Mental Capacity Act) authorised to make decisions on his/ her property and affairs.
- If your loved one does not have a Donee or Deputy, you can apply on his/ her behalf if you are an immediate family member (parent, spouse or child. Otherwise, you can only apply on his/ her behalf if the immediate family members are unable to do this (eg deceased, lack mental capacity or other issues). For successful applications without a donee/deputy, the caregiver or another family member has 12 months to obtain a court order appointing him/ her as a deputy, failing which the payouts will be suspended. Do visit the Singapore Courts website to find out how to apply for a deputyship.
- You may need the following documents:
 - Recent medical report stating that he/ she lacks mental capacity
 - OR
 - Doctor's certification that he/ she lacks mental capacity
 - If the care recipient is also going for a disability assessment, you must ask if the doctor can do a mental capacity assessment \(using this form\) at the same time.
 - The doctor's certification is valid for six months, unless stated as permanent.
 - OR
 - Court order of deputy appointment
 - Copy of bank book or statement if the bank account nominated to receive the grant belongs to a deputy or trustee.

4. What do I need to know if the care recipient is below the age of 21?

The care recipient's parent or legal guardian may apply on their behalf.

A legal guardian is someone lawfully appointed under the Guardianship of Infants Act.

5. Does the residential long-term care institution my loved one is living at disqualify us from applying for HCG?

To qualify for this grant, your loved one must not be living in any of the following residential long-term care institutions:

- Nursing Home
 - Chronic Sick Hospital
 - Psychiatric Rehabilitation Home
 - Sheltered Home
 - Welfare Home
 - Senior Group Home
 - Adult Disability Home
 - Inpatient Hospice Palliative Care Service

6. Tell me more about the means-testing criteria.

Household monthly income per person is the criteria used when there is a household income. ("Household" refers to the NRIC address)

It is calculated as the total gross household monthly income divided by the total number of family members living together in the household. Gross monthly household income includes basic employment income, trade/self-employed income, overtime pay, allowances, cash awards, commissions, and bonuses.

When there is no household income, Annual Value (AV) is used instead. AV is the estimated gross annual rent of a property if it were to be rented out, excluding furnishings and maintenance fees. It is determined by IRAS, and may be checked via IRAS website. Subsidy levels in 2026 will be determined using 2025 Annual Values.

7. How can I check or update my household information for means-testing?
